

Ten to Midnight Party – Have an outdoor party late at night after the mosquitoes are gone!

Midnight Doubles Party – a late night party for couples only. Pair it with cheese and wine tasting; create a romantic atmosphere with candles.

Picnic in the Park Party or Candles in the Park Party - Have guests bring something for the picnic – kids can play in the park.

Potluck Party – Each guest is given a country and she must bring a dish from that country or the guest can bring a dish pertaining to their nationality. Contest for best dish.

Tealight Scavenger Hunt – Tealights are hidden in the backyard or in the house, guests get to keep what they find.

Hawaiian Shirt Party – Each guest wearing a Hawaiian shirt receives a gift. Each guest who has been to Hawaii (or another tropical destination) can bring a picture to be entered into a special drawing.

Salad Party – Each guest brings a salad ingredient or guest can bring a salad. (All melon candles on sale)

Mother/Daughter Party – Includes mothers-in-law, step-mothers, grandmothers, etc. It is a time for laughter and sharing with a favorite picture. All mothers receive a tealight.

Christmas in August Party – lots of specials for hostess and guests. All guests receive a tealight.

Come – And – Go Party – On the go? Juggling too many things at once? Have your friends drop in and out in an allotted time period. Drawing every 30 minutes.

Show and Tell Party Guests bring their favorite PL item (can be holder or candle or both) to share. This can be a current item or discontinued. This is a fun party and the guests really have fun with it. Take only the Booking Gifts and the Hostess Specials and do the Show demo from THEIR favorite items!